

ORDINANCE 122414

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Seattle Retirement System; amending Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code to make changes to conform with the Internal Revenue Code regarding direct rollovers of distributions.

WHEREAS, Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code, in accordance with Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code, provides distributees of an eligible rollover distribution the right to have such distribution paid in the form of a direct rollover to an eligible retirement plan; and

WHEREAS, Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code was last amended in 1995; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to amend to Section 4.36.193 to reflect changes to the Internal Revenue Code's direct rollover requirements made by the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 ("EGTRRA"), effective for distributions occurring after December 31, 2001, based on model language published by the Internal Revenue Service;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code is amended as follows:

SMC 4.36.193 Election to rollover to an eligible retirement plan.

Notwithstanding any provision of the City Employee's Retirement System to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this section, a distributee may elect, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Board of Administration to have any portion of any eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

The following definitions apply to this Section:

1 A. Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all
2 or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover
3 distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal
4 periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the 5 distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's
6 designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten (10) years or more; any distribution to the 7 extent such distribution is required under Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code; and 8 the portion of any distribution that is not includable in gross income (~~((determined without regard~~
9 ~~to the exclusion, for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities))~~ unless it is 10 paid to an individual retirement account or annuity described in Section 408(a) or (b) of the 11 Internal Revenue Code, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in section 401(a) or 12 403(a) of the Code that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred, including 13 separately accounting for the portion of such distribution which is includible in gross income and 14 the portion of such distribution which is not so includible.

17 B. Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement
18 account described in Section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, ~~((and))~~ an individual
19 retirement annuity described in Section 408(b) of the Code, an annuity plan described in Section
20 403(a) of the Code, an annuity contract described in Section 403(b) of the Code, an eligible plan
21 under Section 457(b) of the Code which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state,
22 or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state and which agrees to
23 separately account for amounts transferred into such plan from this plan, or a qualified trust
26 described in Section 401(a) of the Code, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. ~~((However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity.))~~

C. Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.

D. Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

Section 2. The City's Code Reviser is authorized and directed to amend the Seattle
Municipal Code accordingly.

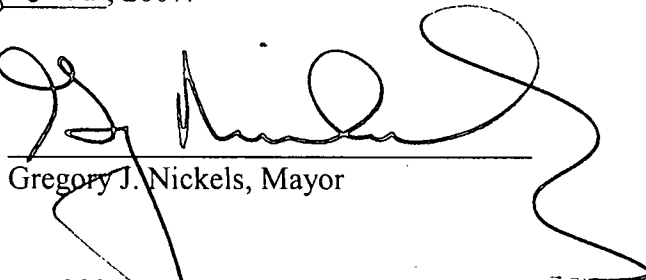

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days from and after its approval by the Mayor, but if not approved and returned by the Mayor within ten (10) days after presentation, it shall take effect as provided by Municipal Code Section 1.04.020.

Passed by the City Council the 11th day of June, 2007, and signed by me in open session in authentication of its passage this 11th day of June, 2007.

Legislation Title:

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Seattle Retirement System; amending Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code to make changes to conform with the Internal Revenue Code regarding direct rollovers of distributions.

• Summary of the Legislation:

This ordinance makes required changes to SMC 4.36.193 in order to conform it with changes in the Internal Revenue Code's requirements concerning direct rollovers of Seattle Retirement System distributions to eligible retirement plans.

• Background:

In accordance with Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code, SMC 4.36.193 allows for the direct rollover of eligible rollover distributions made by the Seattle Retirement System to an eligible retirement plan upon the election by a distributee. SMC 4.36.193 was last amended in 1995. In the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 ("EGTRRA"), Congress made changes to the Internal Revenue Code's rollover requirements that expanded the direct rollover rights of participants. These changes were effective January 1, 2002, and the Retirement System has been operated in accordance with them since their effective date. The amendments in this Bill are necessary, however, to bring the language of SMC 4.36.193 into conformity with the Internal Revenue Code.

Honorable Nick Licata
President
Seattle City Council
City Hall, 2nd Floor

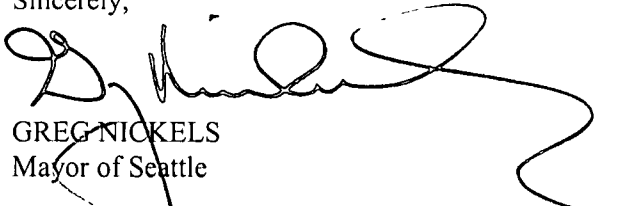

Dear Council President Licata:

I am transmitting the attached proposed Council Bill that revises SMC 4.36.193 to make it consistent with the Internal Revenue Code's requirements concerning direct rollovers of Seattle Retirement System distributions to eligible retirement plans.

In accordance with Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code, SMC 4.36.193 allows for the direct rollover of eligible rollover distributions made by the Seattle Retirement System to an eligible retirement plan. The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 ("EGTRRA"), revised the Internal Revenue Code, expanding participants rights effective January 1, 2002. The Retirement System has operated in accordance with these changes since their effective date, and is submitting this Bill to bring SMC 4.36.193 into conformity with the Internal Revenue Code.

Thank you for your consideration of this legislation. Should you have questions, please contact Mel Robertson at 206-615-1424.

Sincerely,

GREG NICKELS
Mayor of Seattle

ORDINANCE 123414

AN ORDINANCE relating to the Seattle Retirement System; amending Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code to make changes to conform with the Internal Revenue Code regarding direct rollovers of distributions.

WHEREAS, Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code, in accordance with Section 401(a)(31) of the Internal Revenue Code, provides distributees of an eligible rollover distribution the right to have such distribution paid in the form of a direct rollover to an eligible retirement plan; and

WHEREAS, Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code was last amended in 1995; and

WHEREAS, it is necessary to amend to Section 4.36.193 to reflect changes to the Internal Revenue Code's direct rollover requirements made by the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 ("EGTRRA"), effective for distributions occurring after December 31, 2001, based on model language published by the Internal Revenue Service;

NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY OF SEATTLE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 4.36.193 of the Seattle Municipal Code is amended as follows:

SMC 4.36.193 Election to rollover to an eligible retirement plan.

Notwithstanding any provision of the City Employee's Retirement System to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this section, a distributee may elect, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the Board of Administration to have any portion of any eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.

The following definitions apply to this Section:

A. Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten (10) years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under Section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code; and the portion of any distribution that is not includable in gross income ((determined without regard to the exclusion, for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities)) unless it is paid to an individual retirement account or annuity described in Section 408(a) or (b) of the Internal Revenue Code, or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in section 401(a) or 403(a) of the Code that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred, including separately accounting for the portion of such distribution which is includable in gross income and the portion of such distribution which is not so includable.

B. Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in Section 408(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, ((and)) an individual retirement annuity described in Section 408(b) of the Code, an annuity plan described in Section 403(a) of the Code, an annuity contract described in Section 403(b) of the Code, an eligible plan under Section 457(b) of the Code which is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or political subdivision of a state and which agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into such plan from this plan, or a qualified trust described in Section 401(a) of the Code, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. ((However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity.))

C. Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in Section 414(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse.

D. Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

Section 2. The City's Code Reviser is authorized and directed to amend the Seattle Municipal Code accordingly.

Section 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force thirty (30) days from and after its approval by the Mayor, but if not approved and returned by the Mayor within ten (10) days after presentation, it shall take effect as provided by Municipal Code Section 1.04.020.

Passed by the City Council the 11th day of June, 2007, and signed by me in open session in authentication of its passage this 11th day of June, 2007.
